Allocation of funds for training

1981. SHRI RAVULA CHANDRA SEKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a meagre Rs.62 crore have been allocated for training athletes for Commonwealth Games;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and

(c) the steps Government are taking for sending teams abroad for training and participation in international events?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) No, Sir. Rs.62 crores is provided for assistance to National Sports Federations for various activities, including training of athletes. Before the Commonwealth Games, a separate scheme of training of athletes has been worked out.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) After extensive discussions with National Sports Federations, a programme for providing training, foreign exposure, scientific backup, equipment etc. of high standard has been drawn up for the elite athletes, who will represent India in the Commonwealth Games, 2010. Current estimates indicate an expenditure of Rs.661.00 crore for this training over four years (2007-08 to 2010-11), out of which expenditure on foreign exposure would be substantial so that the elite athletes could get the best in terms of training and foreign competitions.

Budget provision for Commonwealth Games, 2010

†1982. SHRI AJAY SINGH CHAUTALA: Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the plan made by Government for developing projects, hotels, grounds etc. in NCR in view of Commonwealth Games, 2010 being organized in Delhi;

† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) the amount of budget provision which has been made by Government for the Commonwealth Games, 2010; and

(c) the details of this proposed budget together with the game-wise expenditure likely to be incurred thereon?

THE MINISTER OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (SHRI MANI SHANKAR AIYAR): (a) The details of competition and training venues finalized for each discipline along with the agencies responsible for establishing the required infrastructure for the Commonwealth Games, 2010 is placed at Statement-I and II respectively (See below). The Games Village near Akshardham Temple is being developed by Delhi Development Authority on the public-private-partnership mode for housing all Indian/foreign accredited athletes, coaches, etc. For augmentation of hotel accommodation, Delhi Development Authority, Government of Uttar Pradesh, Government of Haryana etc. are taking necessary steps which is being monitored by the Ministry of Tourism.

(b) and (c) Government has approved project proposals of Sports Authority of India for an amount of Rs.1000 crores (± 10%) for upgradation/creation of sports venue infrastructure; upgradation of Tenuis venue by All India Tennis Association at a cost of Rs.30 crores (+ 15%) and expenditure budget of Organizing Committee on a revenue neutral basis of Rs.767 crores (+ 15%) for 'Conduct of the Games'. The Expenditure Finance Committee has recommended the proposal of the Delhi Development Authority, for Rs.325.00 crores (+ 25%) for the International Zone etc. in the Games Village (which is being developed on Public Private Partnership Mode) and sports infrastructure.

Planning Commission has approved a proposal of the Government of the NCT of Delhi for an amount of Rs.770.00 crores. Planning Commission has also approved an amount of Rs. 110.00 crores to the Government of Maharashtra for sports infrastructure for Commonwealth Youth Games, 2008 to be held in Pune, which is a sub-event of the main Commonwealth Games, 2010.

It is not possible to indicate the game-wise expenditure to be incurred on holding of the Games as the Stadia etc. being constructed would be used for multiple sports and the training and competition venues of some sports would be spread over different stadia.
